Kenneth Hartman Accepted into NSBA Leadership Academy

OMAHA, Neb., November 1, 2007 – Baird Holm LLP attorney, Kenneth Hartman, has been selected to participate in the Nebraska State Bar Association’s 2007-2008 Leadership Academy.

Ken Hartman was selected to participate by demonstrating leadership and service to the legal community and to Omaha. He was conferred a Juris Doctorate (J.D.) in 2000, and became an attorney with Baird Holm in 2003. Prior to joining the firm, Ken served as Judicial Law Clerk to the Honorable Kenneth C. Stephan, Nebraska Supreme Court and was Judicial Law Clerk to the Honorable Lyle E. Strom, United States District Court for the District of Nebraska. Ken is a member of the Nebraska, Omaha and American Bar Associations and the Robert M. Spire Inn of Court.

The NSBA Leadership Academy is a nine-month program centered on developing the leadership skills of local participants. Its mission is to strengthen contributions to the legal profession and Nebraska communities. Academy participants are selected based on their demonstration of outstanding leadership qualities and service to their communities.

Baird Holm LLP is a 135-year old, multi-service law firm with 75 attorneys providing results-oriented counsel for corporate, institutional, governmental and individual clients. Baird Holm is the exclusive member firm for Nebraska of Lex Mundi, the world's leading association of independent law firms.
