Baird Holm's James Barham Elected Treasurer of the Midlands Bar Association

OMAHA, NE (December 21, 2006) -- James Barham, an attorney at Baird Holm LLP was recently elected Treasurer of the Midlands Bar Association, an association of black attorneys.

Barham is a member of Baird Holm's Financial Transactions Practice Group. His practice primarily includes contracts, corporate law, finance and real estate. James is a member of the Nebraska, Iowa, Omaha, American and Midlands Bar Associations. He joined Baird Holm after graduating with a J.D. from Creighton University School of Law in 2004.

The Midlands Bar Association (MBA) is an affiliate chapter of the National Bar Association whose purpose is "to advance the science of jurisprudence, uphold the honor of the legal profession, promote social intercourse among the members of the bar, and protect the civil and political rights of all citizens of the several states of the United States."

Baird Holm LLP is a multi-service law firm with 75 attorneys providing results-oriented counsel for corporate, institutional, governmental and individual clients. Baird Holm is the exclusive member firm for Nebraska with Lex Mundi, the world's leading association of independent law firms.
