Baird Holm's David Levy Appointed to Downtown Master Plan Advisory Group

OMAHA, Neb. (February 16, 2009) – David Levy, a partner with Baird Holm LLP, has been appointed to the Downtown Master Plan Advisory Group.

The Downtown Master Plan Advisory Group will assist with developing a new plan for downtown Omaha. The plan will replace the current 35-year old Downtown Master Plan and will update the 2004 North Downtown Master Plan. The City of Omaha, along with Heritage Services has contracted with HDR Inc. to develop the new plan for downtown Omaha.

David Levy represents clients on zoning, land use, environmental and general real estate matters, before city councils, planning boards, boards of appeal, and in courts of law. David has spoken extensively on land use and zoning matters, and has served as an Adjunct Professor in Land Use Law at the University of San Francisco School of Law. He is admitted to practice law in California and Nebraska, and has earned the American Institute of Certified Planners designation, the City Planning profession's highest level of certification.

Baird Holm LLP is a multi-service law firm with more than 70 attorneys providing results-oriented counsel for corporate, institutional, governmental and individual clients. Baird Holm is the exclusive member firm for Nebraska of Lex Mundi, the world's leading association of independent law firms.
