Baird Holm Attorneys Grayson Derrick and Lindsay Lundholm Participate in Leadership Omaha

OMAHA, Neb. (June 29, 2009) – Grayson Derrick, a partner with Baird Holm LLP, recently graduated from the 2008-2009 Leadership Omaha class. Lindsay Lundholm, also a partner with Baird Holm, has been selected to participate in the 2009-2010 class.

The mission of Leadership Omaha is to develop effective community leaders who will strengthen and transform the community. Each year, 43 to 48 participants are selected for the 10 month long course. Selected individuals must have expressed a desire to contribute both time and energy toward serving the community, demonstrated prior volunteer involvement and leadership, demonstrated interest in and understanding of the Omaha community and demonstrated professional growth and leadership. Leadership Omaha is sponsored by the Greater Omaha Chamber of Commerce.

Grayson Derrick focuses his law practice on the development, acquisition and use of technology and other forms of intellectual property. Mr. Derrick serves on the Board of Directors for the Nebraska AIDS Project and Social Settlement.

Lindsay Lundholm practices litigation and labor and employment law at Baird Holm. She is a member of the Joslyn Art Museum Young Art Patrons Committee and serves on the Board of Trustees for The Rose Theater. In 2007, Ms. Lundholm was a recipient of Omaha Jaycee's Ten Outstanding Young Omahans Award.

Baird Holm LLP is a multi-service law firm with more than 70 attorneys providing results-oriented counsel for corporate, institutional, governmental and individual clients. Baird Holm is the exclusive member firm for Nebraska of Lex Mundi, the world's leading association of independent law firms.
