FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Baird Holm's David C. Levy to Receive the Nebraska Preservation Award

Omaha, Neb. (October 1, 2014) – Congratulations to Baird Holm LLP's David C. Levy, who has been named the recipient of the 2014 Nebraska Preservation Award, bestowed by the Nebraska State Historical Society. David is being honored for his work that resulted in the establishment of a state income tax credit to support historic structure rehabilitation projects.

The Nebraska Preservation Award is given annually for accomplishments in historic preservation. The award is the State's premiere recognition for significant achievement or exemplary accomplishment in the preservation of Nebraska's historic places. The recipient is selected for the ability to best represent outstanding achievements in the field of historic preservation in Nebraska, and serves as an example for other Nebraskans who pursue dedicated work to preserve Nebraska's historic places.

David and Baird Holm proposed the idea of a state income tax credit several years ago and relentlessly lobbied to establish a bill to support historic preservation rehabilitation projects. David actively supported the legislation through to its passing early this year.

"We are extremely proud of David. This project, which will benefit all Nebraskans in the future, is another example of the successes resulting from the innovation and hard work of our tax credit team," said Managing Partner, Richard E. Putnam.
