FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Baird Holm LLP Announces Two New Partners

January 17, 2017 (OMAHA, Neb.) - Baird Holm LLP is proud to announce that Krista M. Eckhoff and Amy L. Lawrenson have been promoted to Partners with the Firm.

Krista M. Eckhoff represents clients in a variety of complex commercial, intellectual property, antitrust, real estate, and transportation matters. She has represented clients in federal and state courts, and is experienced in arbitration. Krista also advises clients regarding various antitrust and anti-corruption laws. She investigates the risks clients face under antitrust laws (including the Sherman Act and the Clayton Act) and anti-corruption laws (including the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act), and assists clients in developing relevant compliance programs.

Amy L. Lawrenson's practice focuses on real estate, construction and renewable energy matters. She represents developers, investors and owners of real estate in all aspects of real estate including acquisition, financing, sale and development of real property, leasing, management, land use development and zoning, mineral rights, title review and construction contracting. Amy regularly represents developers, investors and lenders of wind and solar energy generation projects. A frequent lecturer on all aspects of real estate law, Amy's presentations include topics related to purchasing, leasing and title law.

"Krista and Amy are great additions to our Partnership," said Baird Holm LLP Managing Partner Richard E. Putnam. "Over the years, they have worked hard to forge strong relationships with our clients, and have always maintained a focus on providing value. Now, as Partners, we are excited to welcome them as key contributors to the continued growth of the Firm, and to our future successes."
